Ex Parte Quayle

1. This application is in condition for allowance except for the following formal matters: Oath/Declaration, as stated below.

Prosecution on the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

A shortened statutory period for reply to this action is set to expire TWO MONTHS from the mailing date of this letter.

Oath/Declaration

2. The oath or declaration received March 1, 2004 is defective. A Notice of Informal Application appears to have been mailed March 15, 2004 indicating this deficiency, but Applicant has yet to respond. A new oath or declaration in compliance with 37 CFR 1.67(a) identifying this application by application number and filing date is required. See MPEP §§ 602.01 and 602.02.

The oath or declaration is defective because:
It does not identify the mailing address of each inventor. A mailing address is an address at which an inventor customarily receives his or her mail and may be either a home or business address. The mailing address should include the ZIP Code designation. The mailing address may be provided in an application data sheet or a supplemental oath or declaration. See 37 CFR 1.63(c) and 37 CFR 1.76.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1-28 appear to contain allowable subject matter.

4. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: receiving [storing] alphabetic play information [phrase], assigning a prize value to received alphabetic play information [each of the words in the phrase] in conjunction with other claimed features/steps appears allowable over art. For the record, use of alphabet, words or phrases in a lotto or lottery scheme are merely symbol/indicia which all other things being equal to conventional lottery is not deemed patentable over a lottery that uses other symbols/indicia such as numbers at least since changing odds by using 26 letters of alphabet (36 for alpha-numeric) rather than ten digits fails to patentably distinguish over conventional lottery game (altering odds of game of chance is known/obvious for causing larger jackpots/awards so as to attract player participation and thus increase revenue through increased play); however, the combination of structure/steps claimed appears allowable.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

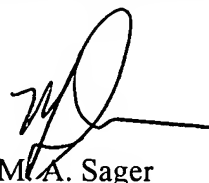

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Walker discloses a puzzle game; while, Boylan discloses match number game with pay chart.
